

Terms

EdgeHub is a market-intelligence and personal-tracking product. It does not operate a sportsbook or exchange, does not accept, route, or execute wagers, and does not custody funds or balances. Outbound links may refer you to third-party licensed sportsbooks; any wager you place there is between you and that sportsbook.

No guarantee of outcome

All probabilities, edges, expected-value figures, and scores are estimates derived from public market data and disclosed calculation methods. Nothing on EdgeHub is a "lock," a certainty, or a guarantee of profit or result, for a single event or in aggregate.

Eligibility

Use of EdgeHub requires meeting the minimum age and jurisdiction requirements that will be set following counsel review before public launch.

Disputes and contact

Contact support through your Account page for any billing, data, or calculation dispute.

v1.0 (draft - pending counsel review) - published 2026-09-16

EdgeHub provides market-intelligence information and tracking tools. It does not accept, route, or execute wagers, does not custody funds, and does not represent itself as a sportsbook or exchange. Nothing here is a guarantee of any outcome.
